The Flags Have Changed – The Words Have Not Declaration of Independence

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,<sup>[71]</sup> that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.”

It is not the government that has failed the American People.

*It is those individuals within the government that have failed;
It is certain corporations that have put greed before the government and the people.
Is failure due to ignorance or that of greed?
That judgment should be left to the parties and their creator.*

“Right of the People to alter or to abolish it”

Alter it: with one’s own pen at the polls.

Abolish it: “Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes”

“But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security”

Let the TRUTH be known and allow time for the leaders of the American People to pledge their allegiance to Truth, Justice and America, only after failure to act by our leaders does one need to consider Abolishment.

Vote Greed Out – Vote Trust In
