

just cause

Referencing Black's Law Dictionary (8th ed. 2004, pg 2527), the definition of "just cause" notes: "See good cause under CAUSE (2)(pg 663)," in referencing, just cause defined as: "A legal sufficient reason."

As written in Jeremiah 5:26-28 we find the following verbiage:

"Among my people are the wicked who lie in wait like men who snare birds and like those who set traps to catch people. Like cages full of birds, their houses are full of deceit; they have become rich and powerful and have grown fat and sleek. Their evil deeds have no limit; they do not seek justice. They do not promote the case of the fatherless; they do not defend the just cause of the poor."

Ask a child why they love their parents and not uncommon answer would be "just cause." Many a child when confronted for answer as to why they committed an act may reply "just cause." It has been rumored the certain of those in judiciary and certain of those in law enforcement act or fall to act to see that the cages remain empty.

Further written in Jeremiah 5:30-31 we find the following:

"A horrible and shocking thing has happened in the land: The prophets prophesy lies, the priests rule by their own authority, and my people love it this way. But what will you do in the end?"

In law, many counsel operate with snippets' to twist fate, one could foresee God as being counsel for mankind, the client must choose, whether the client chooses to follow the snippets, e.g., "But what will you do in the end?" leaves one to believe a choice could be made after a "end of life event" to save the soul, but is the knowledge of the whole lost? Is the soul lost? Choice, gift of God or is it a requirement for condition precedent?

Elections are a choice, exercise that choice.
